– NEW CLASSES –

1) ALFRED HITCHCOCK: THE EARLY FILMS

View and discuss some of the early masterpieces that demonstrated Hitchcock's nascent flair for mystery and irony while illuminating the darker side of the human psyche and evoking primal fears in viewers.
Instructor: Richard Monastra holds a BA in American History. He taught high school and college classes for 42 years.
FRIDAYS 3/8-4/12 (6 classes) • Tuition $71
SBH Council Room • 1:00-3:30pm • Limit 25

2) BUILDING REWARDING RELATIONSHIPS WITH ADULT CHILDREN

Our relationships with our children continue into their adulthood. We find ways to be supportive, not intrusive; engaged, not overwhelming. These adult relationships can lack the clarity of earlier times. We will discuss ways to understand this time in our life, examine case studies, and share our experiences.
Instructor: Suzanne Cohen has been a psychologist and psychotherapist for over 45 years. She draws upon her experiences helping people build rewarding relationships with their adult children.
TUESDAY 3/5 (1 class) • Tuition $11
ONLINE • 1:00-2:30pm • Limit 25

3) THE ALEXANDER TECHNIQUE

Do you suffer from problems such as back pain, balance issues, inability to focus? The Alexander Technique helps you function at your full potential and will help you bring mind-body awareness to everyday activities and redirect tension into useful energy.
Instructor: Ariel Weiss has taught Alexander Technique since 1988. She coaches musicians at Curtis Institute and coordinates a wellness program at CHOP.

4) INTRO TO BITCOIN AND CRYPTOCURRENCY

What is Bitcoin? What are cryptocurrencies? Join this introductory class to understanding the technology and how it will change the way we transact in the world.
Instructor: Chris Golas, experienced with cryptocurrencies since 2017, teaches Blockchain and Bitcoin 101, with the goal of demystifying digital currencies and empower learners to navigate these innovative technologies confidently.
THURSDAY 4/4 (1 class) • Tuition $14
SHHS Room 306 • 7:00-9:00pm • Limit 20

5) SHINING LIGHT ON DEATH AND DYING

Experiencing fear of death happens largely because the topic is generally avoided in our culture. Our open dialogue and discussion allow for freedom, peace and natural curiosity.
Instructor: As an End-of-Life and Spiritual Counselor, Laura Matika provides a safe environment of openness and curiosity for exploring death and dying together.
THURSDAYS 3/7-3/14 (2 classes) • Tuition $22
