– WSCC Getting Back to Some In-Person Classes! –

The WSCC Board of Directors is pleased to report that we had a successful Spring 2021 semester with our first-ever online classes via Zoom. We were able to keep our community safe in terms of needed social distancing, while still bringing some of our favorite course offerings into our students’ homes. We are grateful for our instructors’ creativity in making their courses online-ready and to our students for cooperating with the Zoom class guidelines to make the virtual experience a good one for all.

For the Fall 2021 semester, some of our courses will continue to run virtually. In addition, now that facilities are beginning to open up, we are once again able to offer some courses in-person. Each course will run either Online or In-Person.

ONLINE classes via Zoom – brochure pages 1 and 2

Please be prepared to meet the WSCC student requirements to attend a Zoom course. See the section on Page 4: “Student Expectations to Attend WSCC Online Courses.”

IN-PERSON classes at the listed facility – brochure pages 3 and 4.

WSCC will follow all facility COVID-related requirements regarding masking, vaccinations, etc. Please check the WSCC website or call the facility before registering for classes, to ensure that you can meet current requirements.

All WSCC course registrations are final.

We will see you in class!

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS to Attend WSCC ONLINE Courses

- Please have the Zoom app downloaded and working on your device. Instructors will email the class link prior to the class start (the day before or the morning of the first class).
- Please have a good Internet connection in your class space to ensure that your device will hold the online connection for the duration of the class.
- Please be in a space that is appropriate as class space – one without distractions to your classmates and the instructor. This also includes having adequate space for the course subject, including space to move around during a fitness course, to work during an art course, etc.
- Please follow all guidelines given by the instructor – these will vary depending upon the class.
- Each person attending the course must have a paid registration.
